BEYOND THE BEACH ~ BAJA LUXPLORATION
AUTHENTIC EXPERIENCES IN BAJA
Welcome to our New Wave of Luxploration: From Panga reef cruises and locals’ only surf lessons to sunny yacht breakfasts and table-to-farm lunches, guests get schooled in Baja’s most bountiful adventures. Our partners are the best kind: Seasoned locals with the inside track and a compass set to tailor-made exploration. Dive in!
Only a few backroads of the Sierra de la Laguna mountains lead to Baja’s best kept secret. Outside the tiny town of Santiago, our 4x4 jeeps commandeer the route, chauffeuring guests to an enchanted jungle wonderland lush with flora and fauna of the desert. Consider it Baja’s own Xanadu, an otherworldly landscape singular to this setting. Here, guests discover discreet trailheads, hike amid heroic granite boulders and oversized cacti, uncovering oases of hidden waterfalls, swimming holes and hot springs. After a magical morning of excursions, refuel at the rustic Rancho El Refugio ecological reserve where a local culinary legend will dream up an indulgent surprise feast.

THE XANADU OF BAJA SIERRA
To grasp the rich topography of Todos Santos, we explore both its agricultural history and its artisan town center, overflowing with legendary art, culture and icons like the Hotel California (famous margaritas optional!). Spend the morning meandering through boutiques, art galleries and a textile exhibit as well as culinary landmarks including coffee roasters and candy maker for a sweet souvenir. For lunch, it’s back to the ranch for “table-to-farm” at Jazamango, a new culinary destination where our Executive Chef Gustavo Pinet teams up with culinary legend Javier Plascencia. This is Baja at its most bountiful, dining amid the organic farms, sampling oysters plucked from the nearby sea; quail eggs and venison from local ranches; and prized craft beer and wine serve as the ultimate pairings.

SUNNYSIDE STAND UP:
MORNING PADDLE BOARDING

Start the day with a sunrise standup paddle board at Cabo’s iconic Land’s End. This final point of the Baja Peninsula is the place of postcards where dramatic rock formations jut out of the sapphire sea. The natural Arch “El Arco” frames the intersection where the turbulent Pacific Ocean meets the tranquil Sea of Cortez. Glide alongside schools of fish, splashing sea lions and an intimate stretch of beach straddling the two bodies of water.
Experience a live version of Shark Week starring... you! Topping bucket lists everywhere, we offer close encounters with the ocean’s most gentle of giants. Clocking in at 40-feet long, whale sharks are the world’s largest fish and completely harmless to humans thanks to their exclusive diet of microscopic plankton. Set out on a panga boat toward La Paz into the calm blue waters, and search for your new swimming partners as they glide close to the surface, mouth wide open like a vacuum, filtering food from the water. Once back at the resort, regale in your epic tales with a margarita.

Pricing based on two persons starting at $1300 USD +

BUCKET LIST: SWIM WITH WHALE SHARKS
Be it by yacht or panga, choose your maiden voyage to the UNESCO-protected biosphere of Espiritu Santo Island and its surrounding archipelago, where intimate snorkeling and playful sea lions await. The daylong treasure hunt explores our national treasure, deemed “The Galapagos of North America,” with precision and passion. Feast your eyes: While manta rays skim across the water’s surface and frigatebirds circle overhead, passengers delight in a spread of fresh ceviche and guacamole. Let the magic continue with an optional sunset Champagne toast at Balandra Bay.

Pricing based on two persons starting at $1500 USD +
Get up close and personal in Baja’s Sea of Cortez, deemed “the world’s aquarium” by ocean explorer Jacques Cousteau and universally hailed as the finest UNESCO conservation effort. During an intimate Panga boat excursion, bilingual naturalists identify five thriving habitats, navigating snorkelers through dazzling schools of Horse Mackerel, silvery Sardines and effervescent Sea Lions. Bragging rights come courtesy of Lower Coral Reef and Little Mermaid Coral Reef, which have lured pilgrimages of divers from around the globe.

BAJA’S SURFING PARADISE

Trips are tailored based on experience: Beginners paddle out at the sandy-bottomed beach break of Los Cerritos or go full throttle at Zippers’ right reef break. Priceless? The surfing lore and storytelling passed down through the generations.

Nestled in a desert oasis lies the Nano-community of La Candelaria with a population of 76. During a rare peek into this town, volunteers spend the morning aiding in the upkeep of the Agustín Melgar Primary School with activities like painting, followed by lunch with the school children. The day is capped with a naturalist’s tour, surveying Candelaria’s endemic species, a historic cemetery and a multi-sensory oasis that has lured artistic visionaries and Jesuit missionaries. Geared toward groups.
