(CNN) — What makes a hotel honeymoon-worthy? For some couples, it's far-flung solitude and breathtaking views. For others, it's all about luxury and the royal treatment as you travel. And then, of course, there's the growing number of newlyweds that seek action, adventure and excitement over pampering, rest and relaxation.

Whatever your preference for where you stay, we have you covered. Whether you're after a low-key Caribbean island escape or an African safari adventure -- or something else entirely -- we've rounded up 25 of the best honeymoon hotels in the world.

Set on a long sweep of beach at the base of towering mountains, this dreamy resort on the Baja Peninsula of Mexico is as romantic as it gets.

Each of its 118 rooms features a roomy terrace outfitted with private hot tub overlooking the Pacific Ocean. Select casitas open directly onto the ocean -- you'll feel like you're practically floating in open waters. And they boast private plunge pools and fire pits. The cliffside restaurant El Farallón, with its divine sunset views, makes for an unforgettable date night.
