Now that Cupid's favorite day of the year is just around the corner, it's time to start making plans. But instead of taking the tired old route of flowers, chocolates and dinner, why not share a night with your partner that you'll always remember—or better yet, several nights?

Below, we've pulled together our picks for the wildest, most lavish Valentine's Day hotel experiences from around the world. If the James NoMad's CBD treats and ostrich feather tickler don't, well, tickle your fancy, you and that special someone can always head to the Ocean House in Rhode Island—and drive away with your very own, brand-spanking-new Mercedes Benz.

The Resort at Pedregal (Cabo San Lucas)

The 24-acre resort, reached only by a private tunnel, is going all out with its Timeless Romance package. A three-night stay in a beach villa there includes a bottle of Krug Reims Rosé each night and a rooftop dinner with a custom menu you can sample while you listen to a serenade by a solo violinist and watch a fireworks display. There's also sunrise paddleboarding, a yacht trip during which you can swim with whale sharks, a couples massage and a very generous swag bag, the contents of which include two Piaget watches, heart earrings and a heart pendant necklace. From $89,000, Theresortatpedregal.com.
